

Practicing Deference

1. We all have our inalienable rights, our own _____, our personal agendas, our opinions about most things in life and our _____ about what is _____ and _____.
2. The _____ is that very few of us _____ about these things and the result is much _____.
3. _____ and _____ drive us to value our _____, opinions and agendas _____ those of others.
4. Practicing _____ to one another is the only way that a church can experience _____ and _____.
5. Practicing _____ is _____ to another person.
1 Corinthians 10:23-24; Romans 14:1-6.
6. Practicing _____ is voluntarily laying down our _____ for the sake of someone else's _____.
7. Practicing _____ is limiting our own _____ in Christ so as not to _____ someone else.
1 Corinthians 10:28-33, 8:7-13.
8. Practicing _____ is driven and _____ by our _____ for another person. 1 Corinthians 8:1.
9. Those who are _____ and _____ will not be able to practice _____ successfully. 1 Corinthians 3:1-4.

10. The _____, _____, and _____ person will be able to practice _____ faithfully. Romans 15:1-2.
11. God _____ personal _____. He always _____, blesses and uses those who are willing to _____ their rights for the sake of others. Romans 14:14-18.
12. Practicing _____ is a basic key to _____ others to _____. 1 Corinthians 10:33, 9:19, 22.
13. The more “_____” oriented we are the _____ Christ will _____ us.
14. The key to practicing _____ with _____ is _____.
15. As we sincerely strive for the other person’s _____ we will _____ what things are _____ giving up and sacrificing.
16. When we value _____ and _____ in the church as much as God does, we will fully _____ the power of _____. Romans 14:19-20.